In my first year as King, I solemnly promise to...

The values I'll endeavour to promote are...

The charities I will support will include...

My vision for a successful king is...

As people of Britain, I sincerely hope...

I believe...

Oh, What Jubilation: A Coronation!

When the bells do ring,
We will have a new king,

If you've not heard,
He will be King Charles the third,

And along with Camilla by his side,
She will be crowned The Queen Consort with pride,

Now, the procession to the palace where many will be,
Oh look, the royal family waving from the balcony,

The next day a concert from Windsor Castle grounds,
A large and diverse assortment of sounds,

So, in our communities lets be jolly and hearty,
And get together for a great street party,

Looking at this exciting occasion,
We will unite and rejoice as a nation,

Support our royal family without a fuss,
Let's strengthen the country for all of us.

- Proofreading your child's writing with them - making changes so their message is clear and impactful;
- Perform your child's work aloud - celebrating their success as a writer!
